

Lazy Sunday Afternoon

V1

Sunday afternoon, another week fades out
We're on the couch with a little wine
Tom Petty layin' down the sound
Caught up on 'bout everything that we needed to do don't have to say, I love these days shut the world out, it's just me and you

Chorus

And your body says
Hold me close and warm me up
And your eyes say
Kiss me all over, can't get enough
And your lips say
Whisper you love me a thousand times
It's just a me and you, livin right, holdin' tight, blackberry wine, Lazy Sunday Afternoon

V2

You disappear to find another bottle, so I assume Until I find a trail of discarded clues leading to our bedroom
That's when I know this perfect day's 'bout to improve
My homemade wine, it gets you every time

Chorus

V3

Breakfast for dinner in bed, that's all I said
You bite your lip, shake your head, say, how 'bout this instead
