

Sunday Morning Apology

V1

Sometimes it's hard to understand just what you need from me
You're disappointed and you take a stand
I can't read your mind
But you don't wanna talk to me

Pre

I'll spare you my excuses
Workin' hard here just to diffuse this

Chorus

I never wanted to break your heart oh no
I never wanted to make you cry
I never meant to hurt your feelings
Just realize, I'm not that guy
So this is my oohhhh
Sunday Morning Apology

V2

I wake up and that feeling overwhelms me
Lying there, we're back where we left off last night
No resolution, no middle ground before us
It's time to set things right

Pre

I'm takin' an inventory
But all you need to hear
Is that I'm sorry

Pre

Forgiveness is all I'm seekin'
And now I'm beggin' baby
Oh please believe me
Sunday Morning Apology
